ALMA MATER

Hail to the dearest school of all
Alma Mater mine.
Loyal we will be to thee,
Singing praises thine.
When high school days are over
And we leave this blessed shrine,
We'll win the victory and the right
For Alma Mater
And the blue and the white.

MISS HELEN D. WILKIN

DEDICATION

Memories are the products of a mastercraftsman. We are happy to pay tribute to one of these by dedicating our annual to a person instrumental in shaping the character of youth in a unique manner known only to her.

In appreciation of her patience . . . in gratitude for her untiring efforts . . . and with a broader outlook of life due to her influence . . . this edition of the Pep Pac is dedicated to Miss Helen D. Wilkin, teacher and friend to countless students at a stage of life when memories are formed.

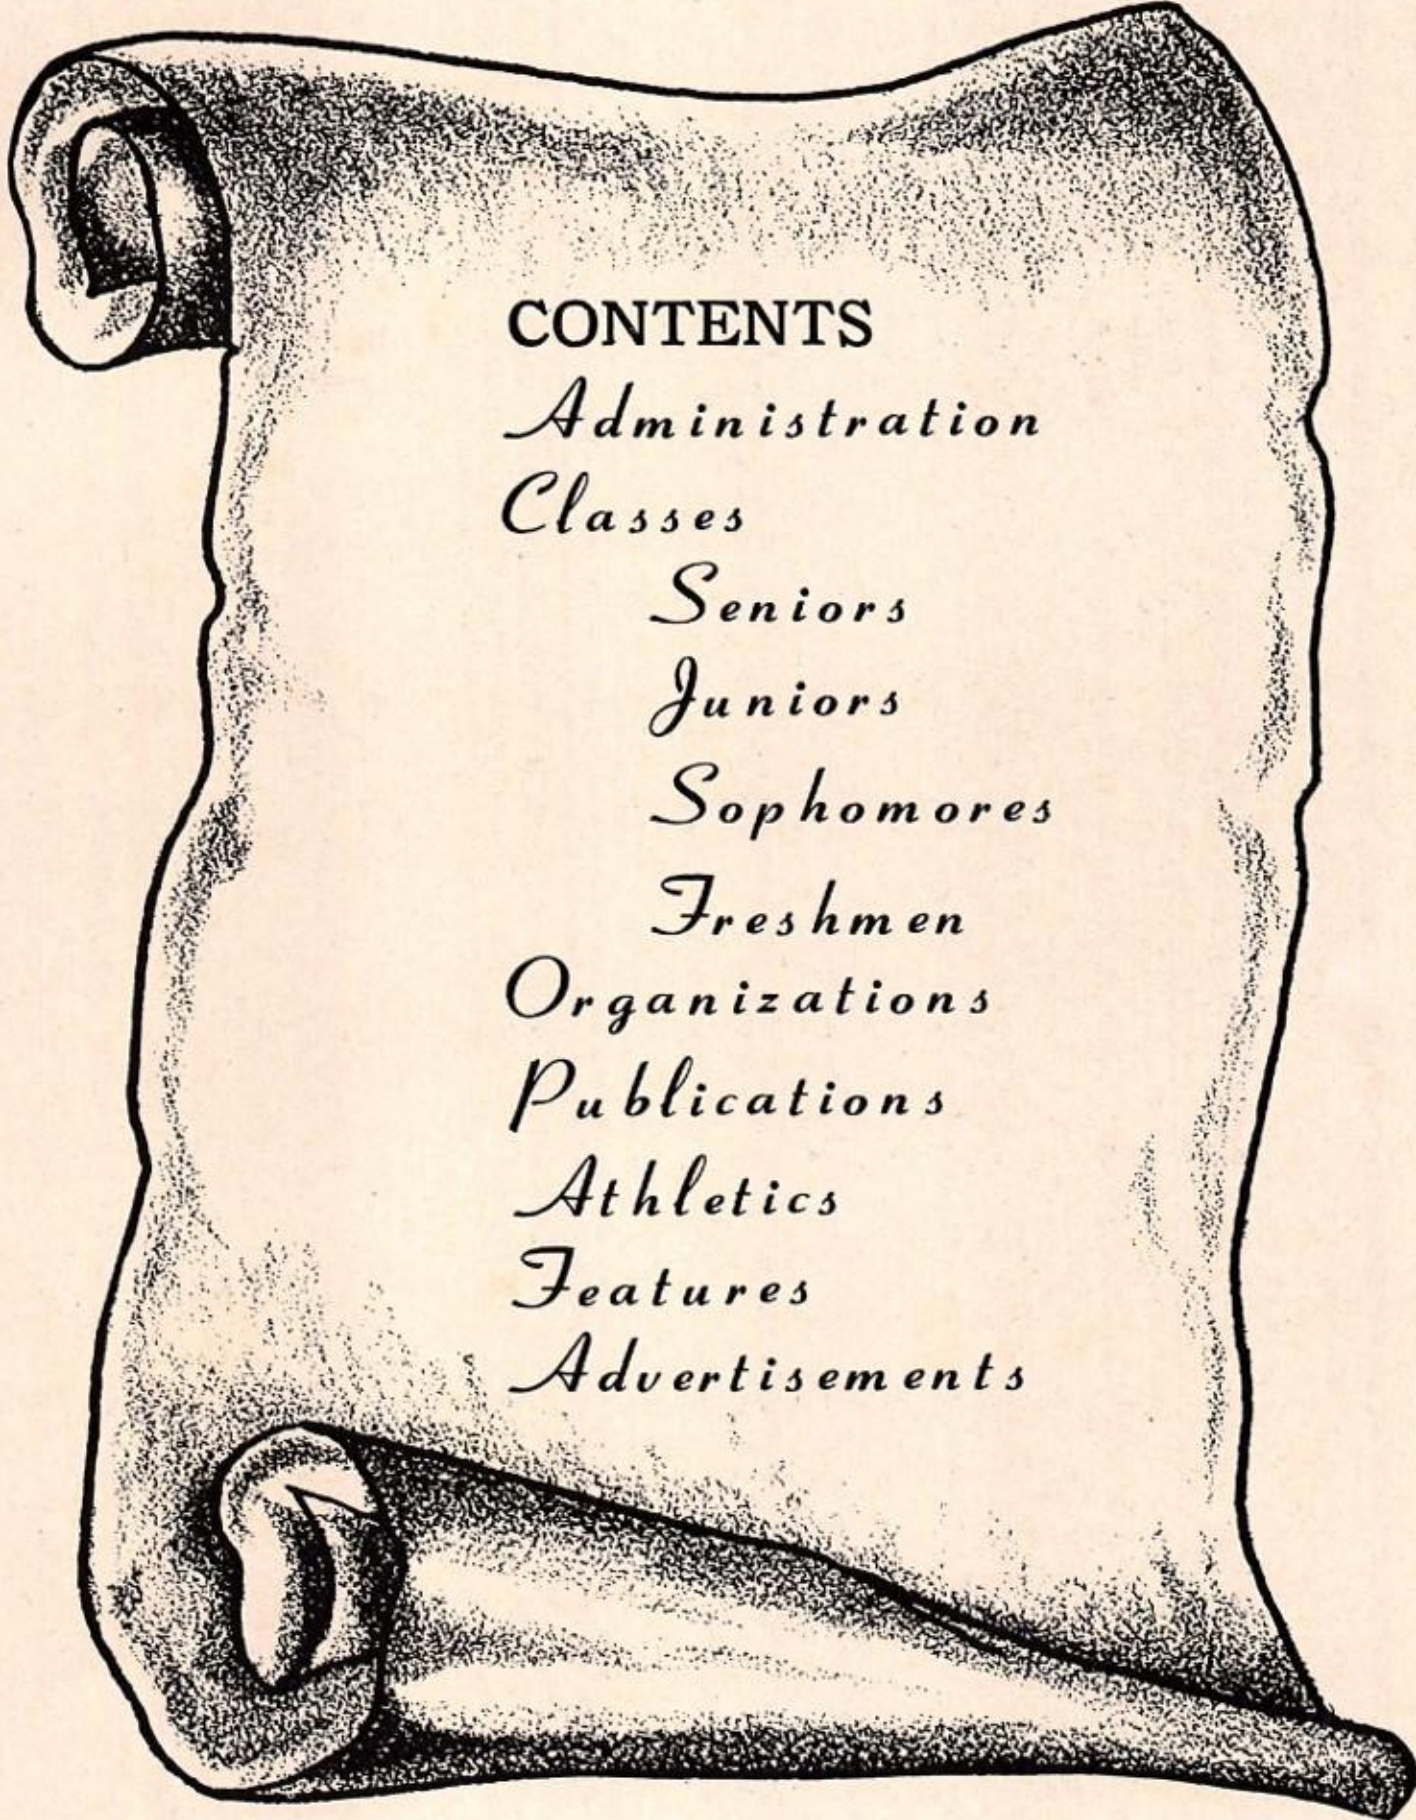

FOREWORD

GOLDEN MEMORIES will linger long after days of bright reality. Age will not serve to fade but to mellow and endear them.

In this thirteenth edition of the Pep Pac, we have endeavored to feature all the memorable occurrences of a year of Henderson High School life. We, of the staff, present it to you with the high hope that it will increase in value as a cherished possession with the passing of time. May it serve to tint the autumn of your lives with the sparkle and zest that is youth.

KEY TO SUCCESS

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh.
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must—but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out.
Don't give up, though the pace seems slow,
You might succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is much nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man,
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup,
And he learned too late, when the night slipped down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out,
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt.
You never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far.
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit,
It's when things seem bad that you must not quit.

Last Will And Testament

"Am I dead?" I wondered. "Is this what death is like?" I could not possibly be alive. I couldn't open my eyes. "Is Heaven but darkness?" Memory flooded back. It was the year of graduation. I was having a terrible dream. I had been asked to draw up a document for the dying Seniors. This document flashed before me:

We, the graduating class of 1958, soon to bear the title of "Dead Seniors," declare this our LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

ARTICLE I. To the faculty

To all of our teachers, we leave our undying gratitude, and to Mr. Kesler, we will an expensive gun and holster that is a necessity for every law-abiding principal.

ARTICLE II. To the president of the Student Body

To Gene Adcock, may we leave our thanks for a job well done. Through his ceaseless efforts we have seen morale rise, spirit increase, and enthusiasm soar.

ARTICLE III. To the Students

I. Faye Adams leaves her knack for books to Barbara Proctor.

II. Eugenia Allen wills her formula for melting looks to Nancy Davis (to use on Mickey, of course!)

III. Shirley Bowen, Pat Cobb, and Marcile Johnson leave their quiet personalities to Ernestine Edwards and Erin Spruill.

IV. Pat Bowser exits and yells, "Hey, Johnnie, wait for me."

V. Toby Bradsher and Willard Delbridge leave behind a trail of sportsmanship and a great love for football.

VI. Barney Geoghegan takes it all with him but questions, "Did I really make it?"

VII. Betty Gupton and Shirley Fleming leave their petiteness to Fran Perry and Betty

Fowler.

VIII. Judy Hearne has to take her intriguing eyes with her for could anyone else use them as well as Judy?

IX. Ann Hoyle and Jerry Perry leave their giggles behind to brighten the hallowed halls.

X. Al Hendrick and Yvonne Roberson bequeath their flirting ability to Charles Stallings and Nancy Evans.

XI. Leon Steed needs another "Sergeant-at-arms" to take his place.

XII. Betty Wright leaves her winning personality to Kathy Bussey.

XIII. Clara Wright waves good-by to Larry Williams.

XIV. D. H. Stallings leaves high school exams behind and immediately investigates college exams.

XV. Carole Fuller bequeaths her complexion to Matilda Gholson.

XVI. Lucy Stallings, Margie Catlett and Edith Forsythe leave their easy-going ways to Joyce Wynn.

XVII. Stewart Finch, our class "kat," equally divides his position between Dick Corbitt and Larry Williams.

XVIII. Ed Payne wills his good looks to Johnny Church. (Does Johnny really need them?)

XIX. Jane Reavis leaves her spirit and enthusiasm to H. H. S's darlin', Pat Walker.

XX. Thurston Ramsey leaves his dependability to Jere Zollicoffer.

XXI. Jane Pearce, Robert Smith, and Joe Clark will their ability to make folks laugh to Alex Edmonds.

XXII. Julia Floyd and Carolyn Peoples leave their sportsmanship to Martha Allen and Sophia Hart.

XXIII. Tommy Hight, James Lavinder and Hubert Nowell bequeath their motto, "If you have nothing to say, say nothing" to Robert Spencer.

XXIV. Clarence Puckett leaves, and takes his golden voice with him—too bad, girls.

XXV. Dotty Stegall, Delores Hope, Joyce Raynor, Pat Gupton and Edna Fields set their wedding dates and leave.

XXVI. Mary Roberson leaves her typing ability to Gayle Hicks.

XXVII. Gary Fleming leaves his ability to make the "perfect crack" at the "perfect time" to Tony Roberson.

XXVIII. Al Taylor leaves his athletic ability to Arthur Cates.

XXIX. Pat Hart bequeaths her beauty to Donna Sturges.

XXX. Vance Parrish leaves this bit of advice: Flunk and the school flunks with you; pass and you pass alone.

XXXI. George Harrison and Bobby Brafford leave to Jack Finch their ability to persuade teachers to postpone tests.

XXXII. Billy Stone wills his French book to Miss Hughes, trusting that its presence will cause her to remember his wisdom on the subject.

XXXIII. Thomas West, Allen Rodwell and A. D. Evans reply, "Silence is golden."

XXXIV. Margie House leaves to Tempe Parker her wit and good spirit.

XXXV. Mike Burris and Lester Currin will their position at "Save Way" to Sonny Morgan.

XXXVI. Priscilla Woodlief and Libby Ellington leave a sparkle behind and exclaim, "We did make it!!"

XXXVII. Tyrone Rowell, Philip Shearin, Ronnie Jones and Donald Snow leave to devote their lives to discover the gold in gold-fish.

XXXVIII. Marie Poole, Betty Crumpler, Barbara Rainey and Gloria King leave their sweetness to Rita Peoples.

XXXIX. George Wortham is heard, "Come on, Jane, let's get out of here."

XL. Dean Stainback, Milton Watkins and Gene Johnson agree that the bad thing about leaving is that you won't have the teachers to argue with.

XLI. Ann McGhee, Lila Perry and Janet Pearce leave their pep to Ada and Nancy Greenway.

XLII. To Paul Harvin we leave Lester Peedin's ability to find nothing to do all of the time.

XLIII. William Hayes, William Lassiter, Mildred Inscoe, and Juanita Asycue have already tied the knot so are just content to leave.

XLIV. Betsy Hicks, much to the school's regret, takes her talent, good taste and poise with her.

XLV. Arnom Harris leaves this bit of advice, "Dance and the world dances with you!"

XLVI. Puddin' Proctor takes a warmth and understanding with her that any school would miss.

XLVII. To the girls, Scott Hughes leaves a final wink.

XLVIII. And I, Betsy Badger, proudly leave with the graduating class of 1958 . . .

Here the document ended.

"Seniors, you're fading away—oh, what is it?—I'm dying—Seniors"—

The world grew dim and blackness filled my sight—I sank into nothingness.

No, it is not death, just the passing of time.

Junior Class

"Mow 'em down you fearless bulldogs. Mow 'em down you men of H.H.S.----" comes the enthusiastic cry of the Juniors. With energy unlimited, they play a major role in life at Henderson High. Entering school with big plans for a Junior-Senior, they undertook the selling of stationery, a fashion show, and the Mr. and Miss H.H.S. contest to aid their financial problem.

This class is well represented in school with individual honors, for they hold claim to the homecoming queen, secretary of the Junior Classical League, state Lieut. Governor of the Key Club, and outstanding football players. 'Memories' of their golden year-the very best-that Junior year-will linger long in the minds of the Class of '59.

Sophomore Class

Wiser than Freshmen-yet jollier than Juniors; these are Sophomores. Wisdom has enabled this class to have the largest number of students on the honor roll. Jolliness and enthusiasm made them win top honors in the magazine campaign-with Miss Hughes' 211 leading the way-and to take first-place laurels in the float division of the Homecoming Parade.

This is the year one received his Band letter--and never gets around to buying that white sweater to sew it on; this is the year when one is too dignified to push in the hall, but still throws snowballs at girls in January; this is the year one reads "Silas Marner" in literature--and has to be told that George Eliot was a woman. This is the Sophomore year, and 'memories' of it will always be cherished!

Freshman Class

The largest class in school-the one hundred and seventy-two strong frisky Freshmen-have set several precedents in their nine months of "secondary education": Among them - winner of Miss H.H.S. contest, Latin Club officers, high honor roll percentage, original stunt night skits, a brother and sister pair of Homecoming Court representatives, and slaves at an authentic Roman banquet.

Entering a new world of activities and study, these "eager beavers" required very little time to get in step with their upper classmen. These students who made door-to-door searches for the much sought-after but never-found "elevator" will ever cling to the pleasant 'memories' of their Freshman year of 1958.

Student Council

The Student Council is the most active school organization for training in parliamentary procedure and in the functions of citizenship. Comprised of officers and homeroom representatives, elected by popular vote, it has sponsored a program of varied activities this year. School Spirit and Religious Emphasis Weeks, Career Day, Sadie Hawkins Festivities, Homecoming, and the operation of the school store were foremost on the Agenda.

All the endeavors were successful in promoting good will among the students and in improving the school. The most outstanding feature of the year's work was the manner in which school morale was boosted, which resulted in a feeling of deep devotion to their Alma Mater on the part of the students.

Certainly the Student Council has attained its goal this year by uniting faculty and pupils in a spirit of co-operation for a better school.

The Future Teachers of America is a nation-wide professional movement to which any student may be proud to belong. Membership in this organization is open only to students preparing to be teachers.

To encourage young people to cultivate in themselves the qualities of personality and character which are the foundations of teaching, to provide them with the story of free schools, and to give specific information about the opportunities in education are the things the Future Teachers of America seek to do.

This year the membership of the Latin Club numbers 127, making it the largest organization of the school. These 127 members co-operate to increase their knowledge of Roman social life and culture.

Many projects were carried out this year. In conjunction with the French Club, the Latin Club sponsored a White Christmas Chapel program, in which toys, food, and clothing were collected for the needy of the community. The annual banquet was one of the highlights of their activities.

Plans are being formulated to run a candidate for President of the North Carolina Junior Classical League, observing Latin Week, and leading a panel discussion at the state meet in Chapel Hill.

The Girls' Athletic Association is the largest and one of the most active and creative clubs in school. Its purpose is that of promoting athletics for girls, and thereby furthering physical fitness, good sportsmanship, leadership, and enjoyment of sports. The participation in sports is open to all interested players, not only to the good ones. Through these qualities the girls have been rewarded high honors from our state at the annual State Playdays at Greensboro. They presently hold the State Volleyball and Ping-Pong Championships.

National Honor Society

JOHN T. ALDERMAN CHAPTER

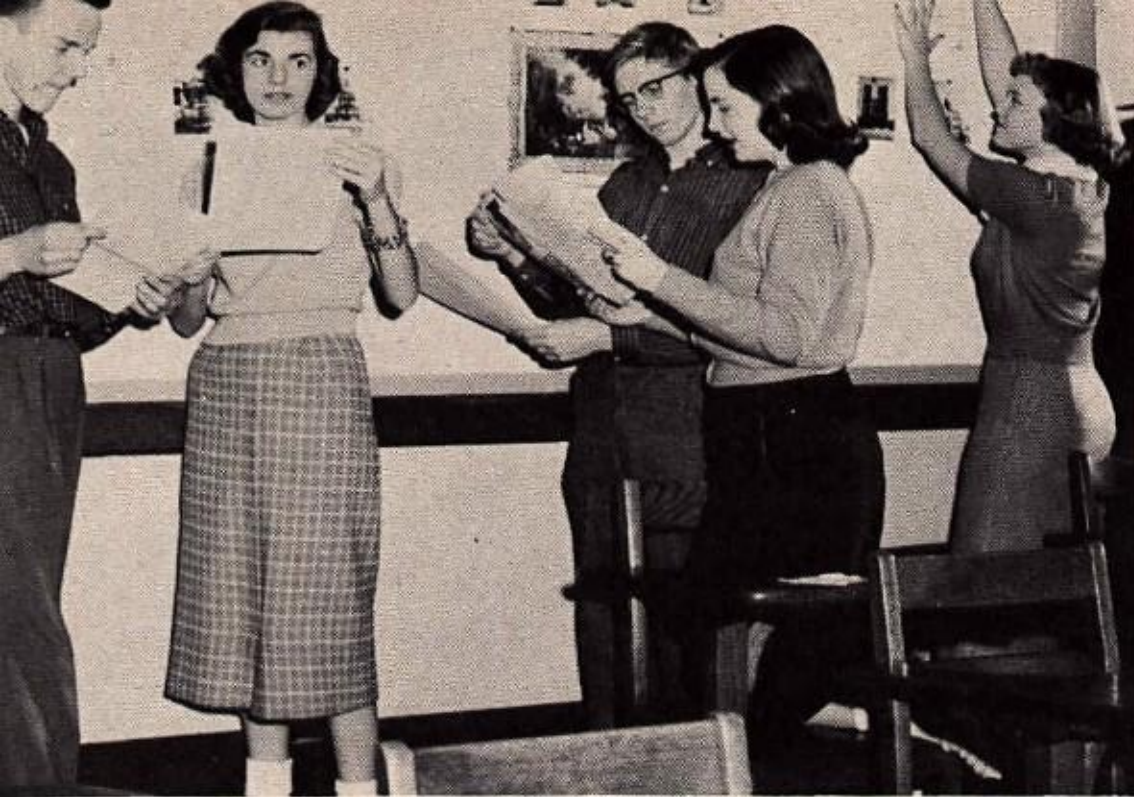

Last year for the first time in the history of our high school, a chapter of the National Honor Society was established. The object of this chapter is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character. For these reasons, membership in the chapter is based on Scholarship, Service, Leadership, and Character.

The election of members to the chapter is carried out by a chapter council, consisting of the principal and members of the faculty. At the end of this year a certain percentage of each class will be inducted into the chapter in an impressive ceremony. These students will remain on probation for one year and then become an active part of the society.

The most important project planned for this year to be carried out by our organization is informing the students of Henderson High, particularly the Freshmen, of the society and its aims. Other projects on our list include a chapel program based on College Life, which is planned to inform students of the work awaiting them. The chapter also plans to sponsor a series of nightly educational meetings featuring guest speakers.

Monogram Club

In this club, like all the rest
You find those who strive to do their best.
In football, basketball, and sports of this kind
Better athletes you could not find.
Sportsmanship plays a very big part
In each and every member's heart.
We play real hard and look forward to a win
But if we lose we try again.
We believe in the team, and in the game too,
Always faithful to the white and blue.

Key Club

The Key Club is sponsored by the Kiwanis Clubs throughout the United States and Canada. This is a high school organization for the "key" boys who are united in a program designed to serve the school as the Kiwanis-Club serves the community.

The prime objectives of the Key Club are: to develop initiative and potential leadership, to create the opportunity for practical experience in dealing with each other as adults, to co-operate with the principal in all school matters and projects, and to gain the experience and practical education that will help members find their place in life.

The Key Club has made its mark on our school in that it has won the Finer Henderson High School award four consecutive years. It also is serving the community inasmuch as it has become a drill ground for community leadership and service. Sponsors are Mr. Allen Minetree, Kiwanis representative, and Coach Billy Williams.

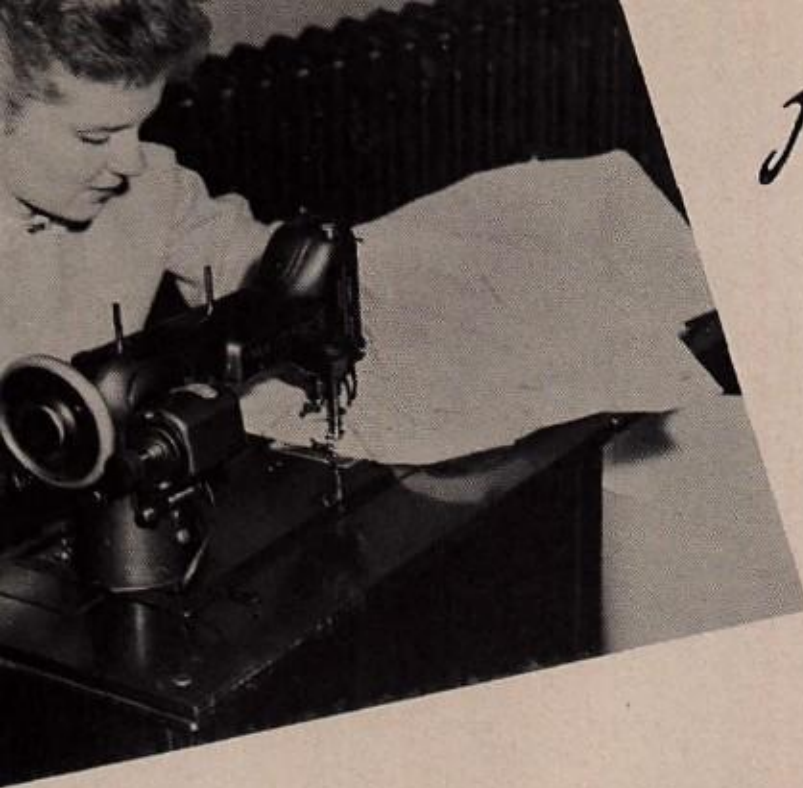

A new organization at Henderson High is the Future Business Leaders of America. The Future Business Leaders of America Club offers guidance to students interested in a business career and helps to develop qualities necessary in becoming a future business leader. Every member of the Henderson Chapter also belongs to the state and national organizations. Mrs. Grace Vickery is the advisor.

Seated: Janet Pearce, Treasurer; Betty Jo Gupton, Secretary;
Standing: Malcolm Burris, President; Shirley Adams, Vice President; Mrs. Grace Vickery, Advisor.

Mrs. Juanita H. Bowser - Co-ordinator

In 1956 the Deca Club was established at Henderson High with membership restricted to those students who participate in the Distributive Education curriculum. Although it is one of the school's newest organizations, it has already achieved state-wide recognition. Delegates were sent to both the district convention in New Bern and the state meeting in Greensboro. At the latter a two-star plaque of achievement was awarded the local chapter and a junior member, Nancy Lester, won honors in a job interview contest.

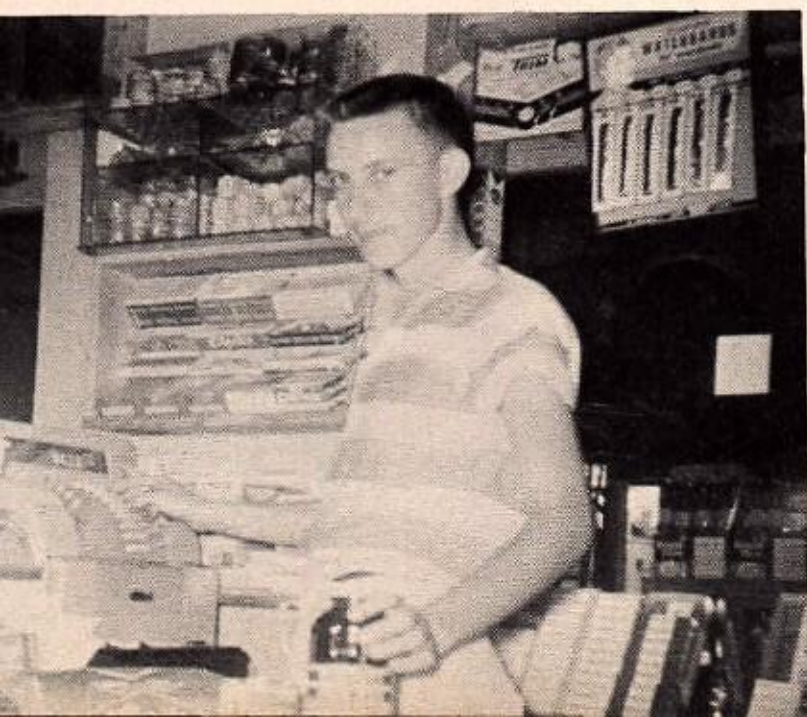

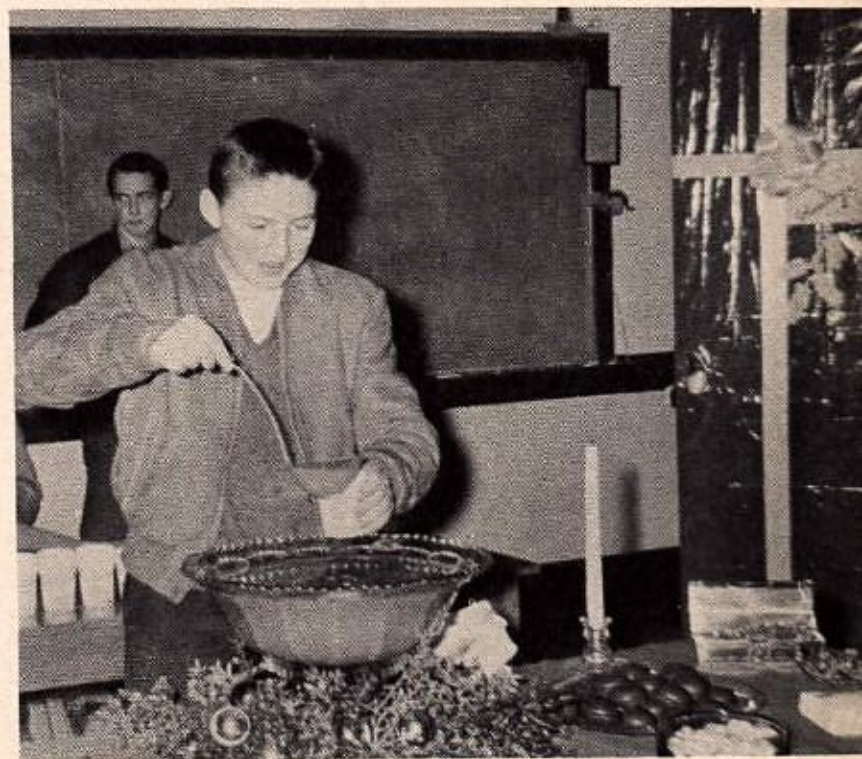

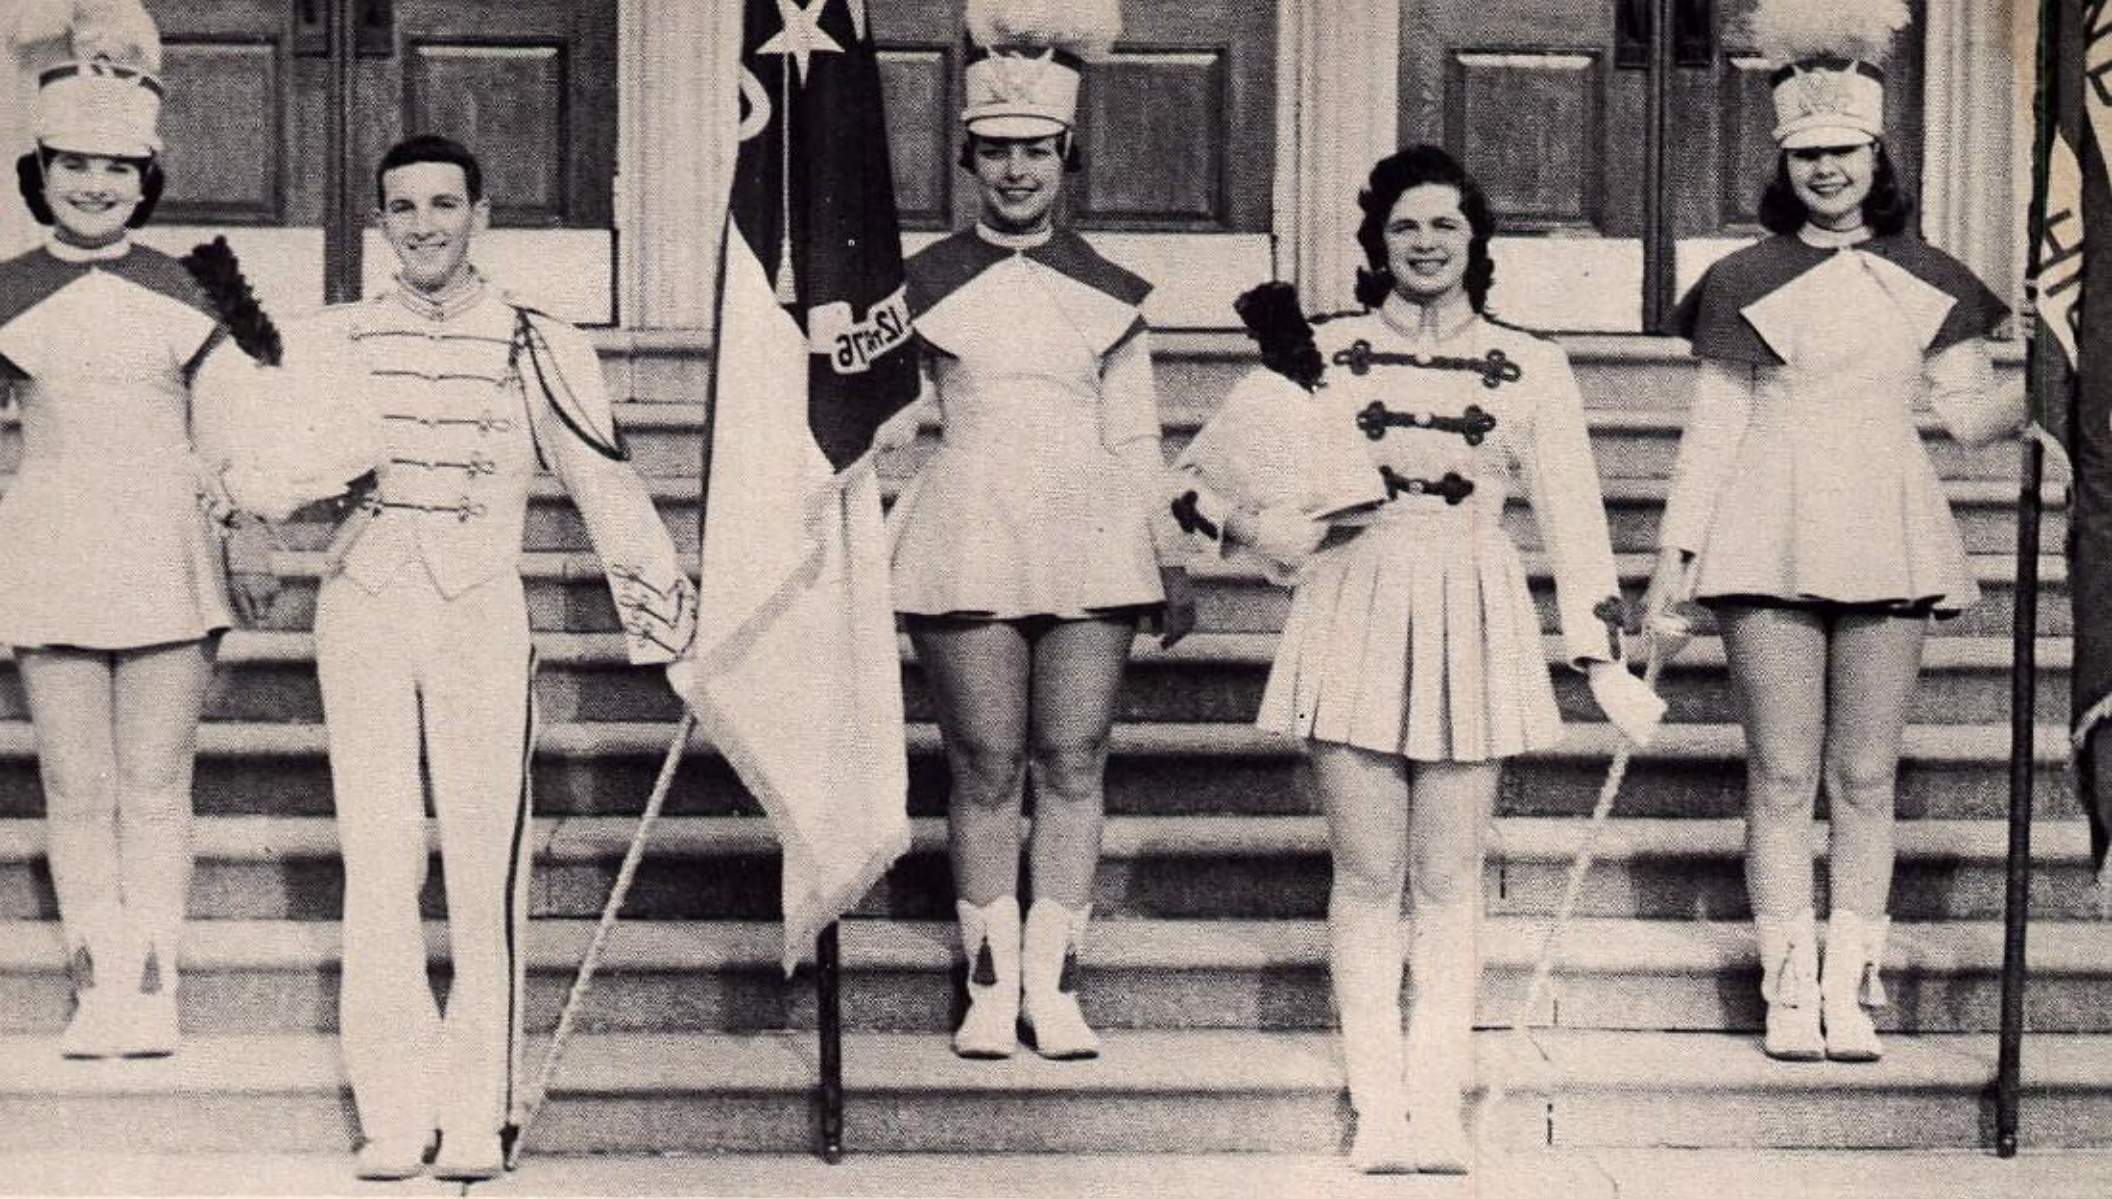

Seated: Charles Peoples, Vice-President; Malcolm Burris, President; Sonny Morgan, Associate President; Yvonne Overton, Secretary. Standing: Vance Parrish, Promotion Manager; Thurston Ramsey, Treasurer; Philip Shearin, Typist.

Entering its twentieth year under the direction of Mr. W.T. Hearne, Jr., the Henderson High School Band and performed during the marching season with 110 members. The group entertained with half-time shows at all home games and followed the football team to Elizabeth City for the district play-off. Moving indoors, they presented the annual Christmas Concert on December 12 and began work on the numbers which were played at the State Contest in Greensboro on April the 18th. This year grade VI music and a manager were initiated into the routine. The manager, George Boyd, who is not a band member, did a great deal to lighten Mr. Hearne's burdens during the year.

Bus Drivers

The bus drivers, with the aid of the North Carolina Highway Department of Safety, have had an excellent record of safety for the past ten years. Each driver received his "basic training" from Mr. Al Howell who teaches a class every fall in the Henderson High School Auditorium.

The drivers promote safety on our highways and in our schools. They urge motor vehicle operators to drive slowly, watch for children crossing streets, and obey traffic signs and laws.

1957-58 Coaching Staff

Our coaching staff for 1957-58 includes two "rookies" and one "letterman". This year we were introduced to Coach Stephenson, renewed our acquaintance with Coach Piestrak, and discovered Billy Williams in a new role.

Head Football Coach, Wade Stephenson, graduated from Angier High School in Angier, and Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, N.C. He has been actively associated with sports since his graduation, occupying a coaching position at Selma, North Carolina for five years. With a first year record in football of 9-1 at Henderson, Coach Stephenson anticipated good seasons for his Freshman Basketball team and the Varsity Track team.

The other newcomer, Coach Billy Williams, played for the blue-and-white here at Henderson High from 1946-49 and at the University of North Carolina from 1950-53, and has now completed his first year here as Backfield Coach of the same blue-and-white. Following his graduation from U.N.C., Coach Williams worked in Greensboro, coached at Townsville High School, and, in addition to assisting Coach Stephenson, is the Junior Varsity Basketball, Tennis and Golf Coach.

The "letterman" on our staff is Coach Emil S. Piestrak, affectionately known as "Pete". Although he hails from Pennsylvania, Coach Piestrak attended East Carolina College and liked the South so much that we are fortunate to have him at Henderson High. Coach Piestrak is completing his fourth successful year here as the boys Head Basketball and Baseball Coach and an Assistant Football Coach.

Clay, Teddy Moore. Third row: Ben Marks, Dick Corbitt, Wilson Hoyle, Charles Rose, Ralph Royster, Henry Strause, Morris Williams. Fourth row: Tommy Stafford, Garland Greenway, Wesley Kelly, Bobby White, Trotter Bagley, Frank Cowan.

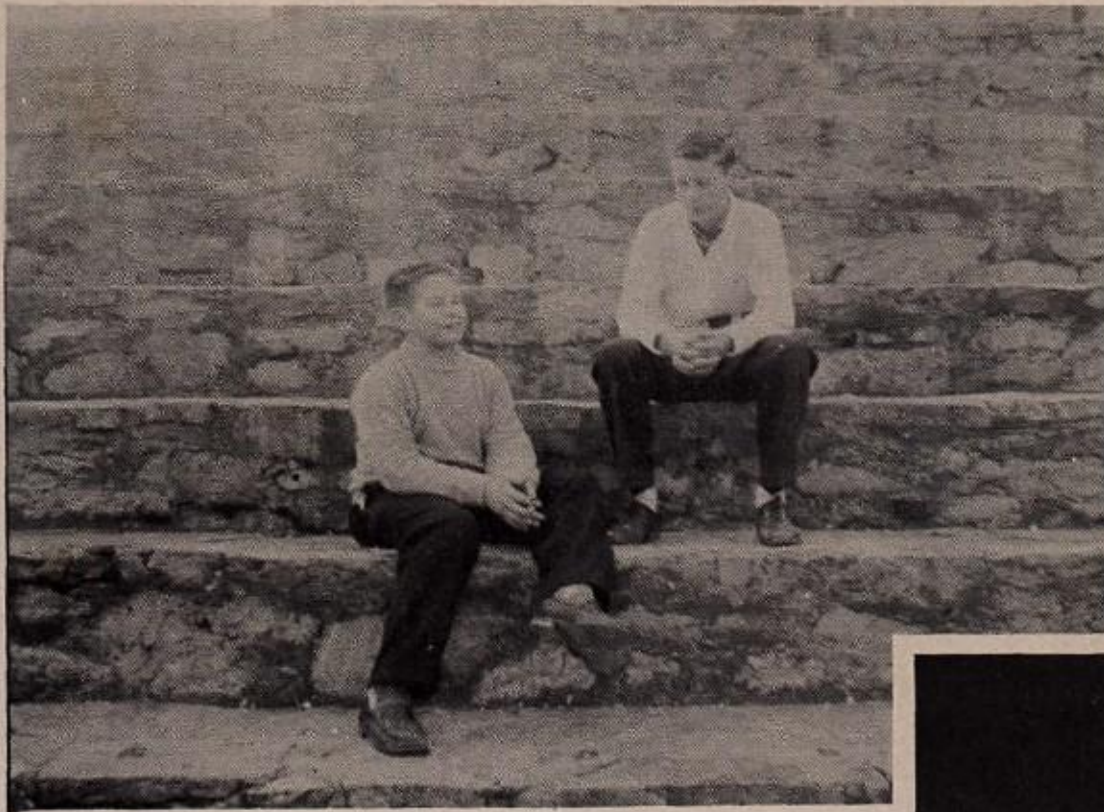

During their first year at the helm, Coach Wade Stephenson and Assistant Coach Billy Williams, with the help of Coach "Pete" Pie-strak, led the Henderson High School football team to the District Three Championship. After losing to Durham High School, the Bulldogs went on to win seven of their eight conference games. The only mark against the Bulldogs was a 19-19 tie with Northern Durham.

After winning the District Three Championship, the Bulldogs met the Elizabeth City Yellow Jackets on the opponents home field to vie for the Northeastern Championship. Although the Bulldogs played a good game, they were beaten 27-6.

Al Taylor, the very fine quarterback of the Bulldogs, was voted the most valuable back on the team by the V.F.W. and received a bid to play in the North - South Shrine game.

Recognized as the most valuable lineman by the V.F.W. was Gene Dillard who played guard. Gary Fleming was given the trophy for being the player who displayed the best sportsmanship throughout the entire football season.

Boys' Basketball Team

Coached by "Pete" Piestrak, the Bulldogs of the hardwood experienced a successful season. They ended their regular conference play with a 14-2 record. In the District III tournament in Chapel Hill, they were defeated in the finals by Graham. The starting quintet, Ed Payne, Billy Stone, Lester Peedin, Mickey Grissom and Gary Fleming, and the rest of the squad displayed sportsmanship and outstanding ability during the three months of play.

there are a lot of things I would like to say but most of all I love you.

Every hour that I have known you has been like Heaven. I wish we could be together always. but due to Uncle Sam that seems impossible. I hope that in the future years we can work something out between us.

I hope that you remain as sweet in the future years as you are now. I am sure you will.

Martha Jo,

Well, this year has come to an end. We've had lots of fun and many exciting experiences together. I hope that next year will bring the best solutions for all your problems. Guess that's enough of this silly mess!

Tommy has really kept us in stitches, if you know what I mean. Shel kept me straight, and I guess I needed it.

School hasn't really helped much but we went just for the record. With Blondie Howes, Squatie Dottie (Happy Mama) Allen Peggy Sue, Faded Wade and last but not least Jerky Jessie, it's really been a complete year. Stay away from Virginia Beach and B-¹⁴⁸ Good. As always Dottie

I want to wish a very sweet girl all the luck in the world.
